How/why key product attributes make it likely that this product will meet the likely needs of customers in the target market

Guardian Funeral Insurance is designed to meet the likely objective and need of the target market to reduce the final or unexpected expense exposure of the life insured by providing payment in the event of their death, terminal illness or accidental serious injury. Broadly, the target market comprises those who have or expect to have final or unexpected expense commitments that will not be satisfied in the event of their own or another person's (i.e. the life insured's) death, terminal illness or accidental serious injury and who have a capacity to pay potentially variable premiums on an ongoing basis. As the product pays a nominal lump sum on death, terminal illness or accidental serious injury, it is therefore likely to meet the needs, or go towards meeting the needs, of those in the target market.
